

Roman Britain: Canterbury AD250

This picture shows you an artist's impression of what Canterbury looked like in AD250 when the Romans had ruled Britain for 200 years.

ACTIVITY

- 1 Compare the lives of the people in Roman Canterbury with the people at Maiden Castle on pages 10–11. Think about:
  - the work people did
  - the homes they lived in
  - their religions
  - who ruled them
  - the languages they spoke.
  - a) Find as many differences as you can.
  - b) Find at least three similarities.
- 2 How much change did the Romans make? Give a mark out of 10 with 10 being 'huge change' and 0 being 'no change'.
